Determination

"Bear in mind, if you are going to amount to anything, that your success does not depend upon the brilliancy and the impetuosity with which you take hold, but upon the ever lasting and sanctified bulldoggedness with which you hang on after you have taken hold."— Dr. A. B. Meldrum

Willpower

"This better to be alone than in bad company."—George Washington

Success

"Too many people spend more time planning how to get the job than on how to become productive and successful in that job."

Words of Wisdom

ATTEND WELL TO YOUR CHARACTER, AND YOUR REPUTATION WILL LOOK OUT FOR ITSELF.

Most of us at one time or another have been misunderstood by those who are important to us. They thought we planned to take an action they disliked when in truth our intentions were to proceed in an entirely different direction. Such misunderstandings are usually quickly righted and life goes on. The same is true with character and reputation. If your reputation is for some reason misaligned with your character, it will soon quickly right itself when others discover for themselves that you are not at all the kind of person they had assumed you were.

If your foundation is strong, you never need to be concerned about such misunderstandings. Others will learn soon enough what kind of person you really are. Spend your time and energy in constant self-inspection and self-improvement, building strong character, and you will never have to worry about what others think of you.
